Subject:- Review of result of failed apprentices in 108th AITT and extension of date for submission of online exam form upto 22.04.2019- regarding.

Sir,

As you are aware, the result of 108th AITT under ATS was declared on 25.03.2019 after uploading of sessional marks by Establishments and Theoretical subject marks, practical marks and engineering drawing marks of the candidates by concern RDAT / SAA/ AAA.

After declaration of result, it is observed that marks of some apprentices haven’t been uploaded by the concerned due to some technical/ administrative issues at their end..

In this regard, the competent authority has decided to review the result of failed apprentices by allowing all the concern Establishment / RDAT / SAA / AAA for uploading of missing / pending marks and reprocessing and declaration of result before allowing apprentices to fill online examination form for 109th AITT under ATS scheduled to be held from 29.05.2019 to 14.06.2019.

The schedule for activities is as below:-

Note:-

a) Before uploading supplementary marks, you have to first upload Final marks of the apprentices.

b) For the ex-failed apprentices, final marks are the marks obtained by the apprentices in any subjects in previous exams other than marks obtained in 108th AITT in all subjects in which apprentice is already passed and needs to be taken into account for preparation of final result / marksheet.

c) For the regular apprentices appeared in 108th AITT, the final marks are the marks obtained by the apprentices in any subject in current exam.

d) Supplementary marks are the marks obtained by the apprentices in 108th AITT in the subject he/she failed in previous exams.

The online exam marks has been already provided to all the concern through email. The result of 108th AITT exam has to be process and declare through Apprenticeship Portal. The e-Marksheet and e-NAC for passed out apprentices will be issued through apprenticeship portal itself.

In view of above, all the concern RDSDE/RDAT/SAA/AAA/Establishment related to 108th AITT under ATS exam are requested to upload the pending Sessional, Practical, Engineering Drawing & Theoretical subject marks latest by 15.04.2019 in Apprenticeship Portal, so that the final result may be processed and declare without any further delay.

Yours faithfully
