Subject: - Eligibility for engagement as trade apprentice to the ITI (CTS) trainees who have appeared in the final exam of NCVT and their result awaited-regarding

Dear Sir/Madam,

In order to facilitate engagement as a trade apprentice to the CTS trainees who appeared in final CTS exam and their results are awaited, it has been decided in the NCVT Sub-Committee meeting on affiliation held on 10/08/2018 that such candidates will be eligible for engagement as an apprentices by the establishment under the Apprentices Act, 1961.

2. However, continuance of apprenticeship training will be permitted subjected to passing the final exam of CTS for which the result was awaited.
3. The reimbursement of 25% Government share of prescribed stipend subject to maximum amount Rs.1500/- per apprentices per month under National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme (NAPS) shall be made to the establishment engaging such apprentice subject to fulfilling the condition mentioned in above para and apprentice completing the duration of apprenticeship training. The quarterly payments including arrears as specified under NAPS will be done only after the trainee actually passes the CTS exam, if the trainees fails in the CTS exam, obviously he will not be eligible for continuing as apprentice.

Yours faithfully,

(S.D. Lahiri)

Deputy Director General (AT)
